5. (Unclassified - JMD) LIAISON Called Mildred Ward, secretary to Senator John Stennis (D., Miss.), about his weekly briefing from Messrs. X1 [redacted] OCI and Cary tomorrow. She said the Senator would be out of town until late tonight and doubted he would want the briefing tomorrow morning. If he decides to meet with them, it would be tomorrow afternoon. She will be back in touch with me to let me know definitely.

6. (Unclassified - JMD) LIAISON Called Nancy Carmin, House International Relations Committee staff, and advised her we have received the transcript of the DCI's briefing of 9 December. I told her we only received an original and would make one copy. She agreed. She said they would return the original each evening to the Agency for safekeeping.

I told Nancy that Marian Czarnecki, also of the staff, had given us a Xerox copy of the 6 November 1975 open testimony of Secretary of State Henry Kissinger, but two pages were missing. She said she would send them X1 to me. (These are for [redacted]

7. (Unclassified - DFM) LEGISLATION Called Jim Oliver, OMB, to inquire whether he had received the material on legislation which I sent him Wednesday, but he had not. I explained what material I was preparing for him and he gave me details on the format which would be most useful to him.

8. (Unclassified - DFM) LEGISLATION Talked to Dave Schaefer, of the Senate Government Operations Committee staff, regarding the financial disclosure legislation before the Committee. Schaefer said some form of disclosure legislation would probably be reported in early spring as part of S. 495, "The Watergate Reorganization and Reform Act." I informed Schaefer we were volunteering our comments which were presently in OMB for clearance. Schaefer feels the floor level for reporting financial statements to the Comptroller General will be $25,000 or $30,000. He further stated that there may well be classes of Government employees from which it may not be advisable to require statements.

9. (Unclassified - DFM) LIAISON Called Jane McMullan, Senate Appropriations Committee staff, and was told the source of a Committee study on military/civilian pay comparability. Mr. Warner had inquired about the Committee's study.
